Announcement to THEPUBLIC

Having purchased of Mr. R. T. Collins his entire stock of Dry Goods, Nations, Clothing, Etc., I wish to say that I will continue the same business at the same stand. The wellknown reputation of the house for the best and lutest Dry' Goods at the lowest prices, will be maintained. The stock will be added to, and no expense nor trouble will be spared to make this store the favorite trading p'ace for the people for this whole section of the country.

My long experience in the dry goods business and observation of the desires of the public, make me confident that I can so ve my customers in a most satisfactory way. All I ask is a visit, to convince you that I will make it profitable for you to trade with me.

In the meantime, just as a starter for what you may expect in low prices, lask those in need of Dry Goods of any kind, to call and see how I am closing out all Summer Goods. The nev Fuli Stock will be on hand in about two weeks, and I think you will find it superior in all lines to anything you have seen around in this section lately.

Hoping to merit and to receive my share of public patronage, I am Yours for Economy,
